

General Forestry Practices on Private Lands in Oregon, Washington, and California
	Oregon	Washington	California
Riparian Buffers
Medium and Small Fish-Bearing	20-foot no cut; regulatory	50-foot minimum no cut; regulatory	50-150 foot management area; regulatory
Non-Fish Bearing ("Type N")	None	50-foot no cut; regulatory	Variable buffer width determined by consulting forester; regulatory
Roads Management
Road Types	New, Existing	New, Existing, Legacy	New, Existing, Legacy
Evaluation	Inventory, Schedule and Repair; voluntary program, no monitoring, tracking and enforcement	Inventory, Schedule and Repair; regulatory program	Inventory, Schedule, Repair, Environmental Assessment; regulatory program
Landslides and Water Quality
Resources Protected	Public Safety; regulatory	Public and water resources and public safety; regulatory	Public and water resources and public safety; regulatory
Evaluation	Procedures for inspections with possible mitigation (Alan, is this right?)	Procedures for inspections with possible SEPA	Inspection pre-harvest with possible CEQA
Herbicide Spray Buffers Non-Fish Bearing ("Type N")
Non-Fish Bearing ("Type N")	None	50-foot, no spray; regulatory	Variable buffer width by consulting forester for riparian buffer; regulatory